Mr.P.Somandi for Respondent

CORAM: SMT.NISHITA MHATRE, J.

DATED: DECEMBER 22, 2004

P.C.:

. This Civil Application has been filed for condoning the delay of nine days in taking out the Appeal from Order. This application is opposed vehemently on behalf of the respondent. According to the learned Counsel appearing for the Respondent, the Applicants were well aware of the order being passed since they were represented by Counsel and, therefore, they had ample time to approach this Court within the period of limitation. Another submission made on behalf of the respondent is that the respondent had sent notices to the applicants to comply with the impugned order and it was only thereafter that the present Appeal from Order came to be filed.

2. Heard.

3. The reasons stated in the Civil Application for the delay are that both the applicants are not from Mumbai and instructions were to be obtained from them and affidavits had to be sent to them for filing the appeal. All this process took considerable time and therefore, there has been a delay of 9 days. I see no reason not to condone the delay.

4. Civil Application allowed. Delay condoned. Appeal from Order to be placed for admission on Board in due course.
